

Blessed Is He

©2005 by Mark W. Tindle

When enemies gather and the battle begins
the man of God cries deep within;
when he looks to the Savior, His face to see God lifts him up and sets him free!

Blessed is he who trusts in God
to raise him high from this miry sod.
Jesus will heed every sinner's cry
for mercy to flee to His precious side.

When you feel abandoned, forsaken, and lost
remember the Lord has paid all the cost to ransom your soul from death's domain,
and seal your life in Him, by His mighty name!

When we are pressed hard on every side
we are not crushed; in Him we abide.
Though we may stumble, we will not fall,
for Jesus will keep us for His heavenward call.
