

Who Is There Like You?

Based on Psalm 71

©2004 by Mark W. Tindle

In You, O Lord, I put my trust; O, let me be not ashamed.

Deliver me in Your righteousness to the refuge of Your name.

Out of the hand of my enemies You will rescue me.

My soul within Your fortress keep; Your glory be all I see!

My mouth is filled with Your praise!

I sing of Your salvation all my days;

For Your righteousness fills all You do.

Who is there like You?

O God, You've taught me from my youth and to this day I proclaim
Your mighty works, Your words of truth, and praises to Your name!

My mouth is filled with Your praise!

I sing of Your salvation all my days;

For Your righteousness fills all You do.

Who is there like You?

O God, do not forsake me now, when I am old and gray;
'Til I declare Your strength and pow'r to this generation today!

My mouth is filled with Your praise!

I sing of Your salvation all my days;

I go now in the strength of You, Lord;

Your greatness I'll declare forevermore!

For Your righteousness fills all You do.

Who is there like You?

Who is there like You?

There is none like You!
