

Praise the Lord!

Based on Psalm 148

Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!

From the heights of heaven,

Praise Him all you angel hosts;

sun and moon; lights of heaven!

Praise the Lord! Oh, praise the Lord,

all mountains high and valleys low;

all you creatures on the earth;

in the sky above, and seas below!

For He commanded and you were made;

and His decree shall not pass away.

His glory above shall never fade. Let all creation say...

Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!

All you men both young and old;

you kings on high and people low;

as His glory you behold!

For He commanded and you were made;

and His decree shall not pass away.

His glory above shall never fade. Let all His people say...

Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!

Praise His Name forevermore!

His Name alone you shall exalt.

Let all creation praise the Lord!
