

Lord, You Have Searched Me

Lord, You have seached me and known me,
You know my rest and my rising,
You understand my every thought,
And You know my path and my lying.

You are acquainted with all of my ways,
Not a word on my tongue unknown,
You are behind and before me,
And You have laid Your hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
It is high and I cannot attain it.

Where can I go from Your Spirit?
Where can I flee from Your presence?
From the heavens to the depths of the earth,
You are there, and Your hand shall lead me.

If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me."
Yet, even the night shall be as the light of day on me;
For the deepest darkness could never hide me from You,
For the dark and the light, they are the same to You.

Search me, O God and know me;
Try me and know my thoughts;
See if there be any wickedness in me,
And lead me in the way everlasting.
